ADD-ON COURSE MONITORING COMMITTEE

The Add-on Course Monitoring Committee at Salafiyya Training College, Karinganad, is a dedicated body that oversees the planning, implementation, and evaluation of add-on courses offered by the college. Recognizing the importance of skill development and holistic education, the committee ensures that these additional courses complement the regular academic curriculum, providing students with valuable skills that enhance their career prospects and personal growth.

The committee works closely with faculty, industry experts, and curriculum developers to design courses that are both relevant and practical, aligning with current trends and job market demands. Regular monitoring and feedback sessions allow the committee to continually improve course quality, addressing student needs and ensuring effective learning outcomes.

Through its commitment to excellence, the Add-on Course Monitoring Committee plays an essential role in broadening educational opportunities, empowering students with the knowledge and skills necessary to excel in their chosen fields. The committee's dedication to continuous improvement and innovation is a reflection of Salafiyya Training College's commitment to providing a dynamic and well-rounded educational experience.
